Dear Mr. Newman:

In reference to our phone conversation of August 11, enclosed is a list of coins that we would like displayed at Mascoutah Bank and Trust Company.

If any of these items requested are unavailable or if you have any suggestions, please contact me or Joe Dressler. I will be on vacation from August 22 to September 7.

Thank you for your help and consideration in this coin display. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

MASCOUTAH BANK & TRUST COMPANY

Dear Mr. Schroeder:

We will be glad to help you on your first display, but please contact me immediately on your return. We understand that you are going to insure material on display and will repay any costs of delivery and return.

Since this is a display for commercial purposes you may submit to your organization the fact that we do not charge for any material displayed, but a gift is customarily made to this organization for its assistance. Any money received goes to numismatic research and museum development work.

Sincerely yours,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr. Schroeder:

We are lending you for exhibit the paper money and coins listed on the attached sheet. You may return them as late as the 1st of December, 1975. You will carry insurance on them between $4,000 and $5,000.

My suggestion is that you do not take the paper money out of the holders, although you can reverse it to show the other side if you wish.

It is a pleasure to be of service to you and I hope the public enjoys the exhibit.

Sincerely yours,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr. Newman:

On behalf of our employees and customers, I would like to thank you very much for the use of your coin and currency. Very few people in Mascoutah have ever seen anything like what was displayed so I feel the effort was worthwhile.

In order to help encourage research, the bank is making a $50 contribution to the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Association. I feel that the support and advice from the various numismatists has been invaluable.

Again thanks very much and have a Happy Holiday Season.

Sincerely,

Kent Schroeder
